Session 1: 3:00 - 5:00 pm

Session 2: 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Business ethics describes the ethical decisions and moral standards we use to conduct business. It is the day to day manner in which businesses deal with their customers, vendors, and employees. Good business ethics should be one of the foundations on which a company, corporation, or firm builds its success and should not be sacrificed for increased profits.

This seminar will help you better understand ethical decision making and why and how ethics must become an integral part of your business life.
