

DINNER MEETING + 2 CPEs

Tuesday, December 13, 2011

Fratello's Italian Grille, Manchester, NH

5:00 pm Networking 6:00-8:00 pm Dinner and Speaker

Impact of Recent Legislation on Tax Practice in NH

Speakers: Jon Sparkman, JD Jason Cole, JD
Devine, Millimet & Branch P.A.

Devine, Millimet's State and Local Tax Practice will lead this discussion focusing on recent developments in taxation for New Hampshire businesses. Attorneys Sparkman and Cole will:

- Highlight recent legislative changes in New Hampshire tax laws and provide an assessment on proposed rules interpreting these tax laws.
- Examine hot issues and assess how the New Hampshire Department of Revenue Administration is likely to respond.

Jon Sparkman is a shareholder at Devine, Millimet represents businesses of all sizes in tax planning, audits and administrative appeals of business profits tax, business enterprise tax, real estate transfer tax, meals and rooms tax, and interest and dividends tax matters before the State of New Hampshire's Department of Revenue Administration. He is a frequent speaker on New Hampshire taxation topics. Jon's background as a CPA provides him with a broad business and financial base. A graduate of Suffolk University Law School in 1990, Jon has been admitted to the Bar in New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

Jason Cole is concentrating his practice in business and tax planning, tax controversy representation, mergers and acquisitions, corporate, banking and non-profit law. His multidisciplinary background as a CPA and a JD enable Jason to be an effective advisor and advocate in administrative legal proceedings. Jason received his JD from Suffolk University in 2006 and his MS/MBA from Northeastern in 1999. Jason has been admitted to the Bar in New Hampshire and the United States Tax Court; and currently serves as Chair of the Tax Section, New Hampshire Society of Certified Public Accountants.

